Hey Pranav,

Just wanted to send a HUGE thank you 🙌 for volunteering your expertise to judge the 2024 Fortress Cybersecurity Awards! Your insights were invaluable in selecting the most impressive contenders, and we couldn't have done it without you.

The suspense is over! The official results are now live on our website. Take a peek 📖 and see which innovative companies are building a stronger cybersecurity future.

Speaking of the future, we're kicking off a social media 📢 blitz on June 5th to celebrate all the judges! It'll be a few days of awesome content, and we'd love to have you join in the fun.

Here's how you can be a 🌟 cyber-celebrity:

- Be Socially Savvy: Head over to LinkedIn and follow the Business Intelligence Group. This will help us tag 📍 you 🙌 in our posts.
- Spread the Word: Once we post the news, 👍 like and comment to boost the signal!
- Become a Social Media Star: Feeling bold? Why not announce your participation on your own LinkedIn profile? 🗣️ Share your experience judging the awards and how impressed you were with the caliber of submissions.

To help you out, we've got some goodies:

1. Certificate of Appreciation: Display your judging prowess with a printable certificate: <https://bintelligence.us/2024-fortress/judge-cert/Slide136.PNG>
2. Social Media Image: Spruce up your posts with a snazzy social media image highlighting your participation: <https://bintelligence.us/2024-fortress/judge-social/Slide136.PNG>
3. Judges Badge Image: Show off your cyber-detective skills with a cool judge's badge image: <https://drive.google.com/file/d/13a71HNvnxd7cKdVct2K9HUh0HJghOd4/view?usp=sharing>

Feel free to use any (or all!) of these on your online platforms, business cards, or even carrier pigeons (though carrier pigeon 🕊️ social media reach might be limited).

Here are a few sample 📄 LinkedIn posts 📄 you can adapt to announce your participation:

About our website: We are (still) in the process of updating the judges section of our website. While it is taking much longer than we anticipated, we are sticking to our dreams and making this a real community - so, thank you for your patience as we upgrade and enhance! We hope to have it live in the next few weeks and we will be making a big deal of it and you again!!

Thanks again for your time and expertise. You're a true champion of cybersecurity!

Best,

The Business Intelligence Group Team
